Administrative Concepts Gives to Neumann Family

Southwest Florida – Moved by the recent loss of Raymond Neumann, the employees at Administrative Concepts Corp. (ACC), decided to do what they could to help Neumann’s family. Neumann was the petroleum hauler who was involved in the crash, when he swerved to avoid colliding into an out-of-control vehicle, at I-75 and U.S. 301 near Ellenton. He left behind six children.

Sarah Pewterbaugh, sales coordinator, and Katherine Rothe, business consultant, coordinated a company-wide raffle selling 240 tickets, resulting in a $1,200 donation for the Neumann family. Several prizes were awarded, including two $250 Visa gift cards, a manicure and a pedicure from Divine Touch Nail salon in Bradenton, and dinner for two at MarVista on Longboat Key.

Chief Executive Officer Teresa Dick said, “We are grateful to help the Neumann family, and our team responded very generously to the opportunity to give. When we heard about the Neumann family, we felt such empathy because someone within our organization experienced a similar loss a few years ago. We realized we wanted to do

I cannot even begin to express how much we appreciate what is being done for our family and how grateful we are.”
